

Presumptive Eligibility Requirements

1. Pregnant, as verified by a professionally administered pregnancy test
2. Not currently a Medicaid member
3. Currently an Indiana resident
4. A U.S. citizen or qualified non-citizen, including:
  - a. Lawful permanent resident immigrant living lawfully in the U.S. for five years or longer
  - b. Refugee
  - c. Individuals granted asylum by the immigration office
  - d. Deportation withheld by order from an immigration judge
  - e. Amerasian from Vietnam
  - f. Veteran of U.S. Armed Forces with honorable discharge
5. Not currently incarcerated
6. Has a gross family income (before taxes and other deductions) less than 200 percent of the federal poverty level (see Table 1)

Family Size: The number of persons living together who are related by blood, marriage, or adoption.

For married applicants or those 18 years or older: Include the applicant and applicant’s unborn child (children), the applicant’s spouse, and children of the applicant or the applicant’s spouse under age 18 who live with the applicant. Do not include the boyfriend of the applicant.

For applicants less than 18 years old and unmarried: In the case of an applicant who is younger than age 18, unmarried, and living with her parents, include the applicant, her parents, the applicant’s child (children), and her parents’ children who are under age 18. Include her parents and parents’ other children under 18 only if the applicant lives with them. Do not include the boyfriend of the applicant.

Income: Wages/salaries, tips, self-employment, dividends, interest, child support paid to support the pregnant woman, Social Security, veteran’s benefits, unemployment compensation, worker’s compensation, sick benefits, retirement benefits, pensions, rental income, cash contributions.

- Do not count income for children other than the pregnant woman or her spouse.
- Count child support for the pregnant woman only if she receives it for her own support.
- Do not count child support if it is paid for the support of her children.
- Include only parents’ income when the pregnant woman is younger than age 18 and is not married.

Table 1 – Gross Family Income Requirements for Presumptive Eligibility for Pregnant Women (Effective March 1, 2009 – February 28, 2010)

Family Size	Monthly Income ($)	Annual Income ($)
2	$2,429	$29,148
3	$3,052	$36,624
4	$3,675	$44,100
5	$4,299	$51,588
6	$4,922	$59,064
7	$5,545	$66,540
8	$6,169	$74,028
For each additional person add:	$624	$7,476

Weekly income
Multiply by 4.3 to determine monthly income

Biweekly income
Multiply by 2.15 to determine monthly income